

Violence Impacting Young People Programme - Privacy Notice

The Violence Impacting Young People programme is jointly funded by BBC Children in Need and Social Finance Ltd. In relation to the Violence Impacting Young People programme, BBC Children in Need and Social Finance Ltd are joint data controllers and will share personal data with each other and process it for the purposes of:

- supporting in the grants assessment and decision making process (applicants);
- making, managing, receiving reports and supporting the joint grants (successful applicants);

Where applicable, we each may be required to share with HMRC relevant information about your Organisation for HMRC reporting purposes.

You can read more about how BBC Children in Need uses personal data, including your rights and our contact details which we receive from or about you in the 'Grantees' section of our privacy notice, which you can read here <https://www.bbcchildreninneed.co.uk/legal/privacy-policy/privacy-policy-in-full/> Information on how Social Finance Ltd handles such personal data including your rights and our contact details is set out here <https://www.socialfinance.org.uk/privacy-policy#datacollected>

The legal basis on which BBC Children in Need and Social Finance UK processes your personal information is that it is in our legitimate interests to run grants and therefore further our charitable aims and our objects. We do not believe this unreasonably impacts on your rights and freedoms.

We will each retain your information in accordance with the following:

Social Finance Ltd: Your personal data will be kept until 31 December 2021

BBC Children in Need: Successful grant applicants: your personal data will be retained for 7 years from the end of the grant. For unsuccessful grant applicants, your personal data will be retained for 1 year from receipt.

Your rights and more information

If you have any worries or complaints about the way we use your information, please don't hesitate to get in touch with us. We'll do our very best to set your mind at rest or put things right. And if, for whatever reason, you feel we're not meeting the exceptionally high standards we expect of ourselves, you're within your rights to tell the UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

You're welcome to get in touch with us to discuss your information at any time.

BBC Children in Need's contact details are here <https://www.bbcchildreninneed.co.uk/about-us/get-in-touch/>

Social Finance Ltd's contact details are here <https://www.socialfinance.org.uk/privacy-policy#contactdetails>

Thank you very much for taking the time to read this policy.

BBC Children in Need and Social Finance Ltd